

Worship Service Recap: Sunday, May 8

---

Re-watch Sunday's Service

<https://boxcast.tv/view/worship-133596>

Joys and Concerns

Fern (she, her): I am thankful for the beauty of the Rose-breasted Grosbeaks who are visiting me at the bird feeders these days. 4 Glorious males and their female companion (sister? Mama?) In a few more days they will head on to their breeding grounds and will be just a beautiful memory for May.

Karen S: For Nzadi Keita and her family extra positive energy needed. Celebration to all the mothers and mothering kind!

Annabel G: It has been 9 years since we have been with Ellen and Uma on Mother's Day, so this is a very happy day for me. Honoring the nurturing, mentoring, mothering that all women do.

Portia H: Ethel H and Lucille L

Louise S: All good thoughts and prayers for Paul (former husband, daughter's dad) who is struggling with depression and addiction.

Linda H: I am having some problems at my incision site from the surgery. Hopefully it will resolve soon. Fern, so happy you have had rose-breasted grosbeaks at your feeder!

Mary L: My brother, sister and I met on Zoom to reflect on the two year anniversary of Dad's passing from Covid. We will finally get together in person in VA in July.

Holly J: Good Morning everyone! I'm sorry to report that Laurie D, a new friend who was at Kin's installation with her daughter last week, broke her hip this week and had a hip replacement Friday. Hopefully she will come home today. Her cell phone is 215-541-7955.

Peter (he/him/his): Be mindful of and act with all who are and or feel powerless and oppressed! The people of Ukraine, Ethiopia, Western Morocco, Syria, and in our own neighborhoods need to feel and see our actions! Also, a Happy Mother's Day to all who are and have been nurturers! mothers

Sandy: My thoughts go to my son's wife, ChungMin, the mother of two great children, who is now having to adjust to back-to-work with the young one in a group of friends in the same confusion who take turns.

Bernadette: Strong and beautiful women need to be able to choose motherhood. On this day of all days, may there be more enlightenment. That's what is in my heart.

Carola S: Thinking of my wonderful mother who had a hard life, depression and five years of occupation in the Netherlands. Another joy is the graduation this month of my eldest grandson Miles N from Princeton University. I am very proud of him.

Music

Prelude- #188 Come, come whoever you are

Opening hymn - #129 "For All that Is Our Life"

Special Music- "Play God" Music by: Ani DiFranco & her daughter Petah

Offering/Offertory- "A Mother's Heart" by William Joseph

Final hymn - #1028 "Fire of Commitment"

Postlude- "I'll Always Love My Mama" by The Intruders